1.9 Whistle Blowing Policy

Definition

Whistleblowing is raising a concern about malpractice within an organisation.

Protection

Checkendon Pre-School C.I.O is committed to delivering a high quality pre-school service, promoting organisational accountability and maintaining public confidence.

This policy provides individuals in the work place with protection from victimisation or punishment where they raise a genuine concern about misconduct or malpractice in the organisation. The policy is underpinned by the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 which encourages people to raise concerns about misconduct or malpractice in the workplace, in order to promote good governance and accountability in the public interest.

The Act covers behavior which amounts to:

- A criminal offence
- Failure to comply with any legal obligation
- A miscarriage of justice
- Danger, health and safety of an individual and/or environment
- Deliberate concealment of information about any of the above.

It is not intended that this policy be a substitute for, or an alternative to, our formal grievance procedure, but is designed to nurture a culture of openness and transparency within the organisation which makes it safe and acceptable for employees and volunteers to raise in good faith, a concern they may have about misconduct or malpractice.

An employee or volunteer who acting in good faith, wishes to raise such a concern should normally report the matter to the Manager (Supervisor) who will advise the employee or volunteer of the action that will be taken in response to the concerns expressed. Concerns should be investigated and resolved as quickly as possible. If an employee or volunteer feels the matter cannot be discussed with the Manager, he or she should contact the Chairperson of the Committee who may discuss it with our Early Years Advisor at Oxfordshire County Council or call Ofsted on 0345 1231231 for advice on what steps to follow.

A disclosure in good faith to the Manager or Chairperson of Committee will be protected. Confidentiality will be maintained wherever possible and the employee or volunteer will not suffer any personal detriment as a result of raising any genuine concern about misconduct or malpractice within the organisation.

This policy was adopted by Checkendon Pre-School CIO.
